

BEYOND WORDS: VIVID PICTURES OF JESUS IN ACTION
Message #7---“What Will A Seed Produce?”
Mark 4:21-34

If the disciples, following the Day of Pentecost, had not proclaimed the gospel of Jesus, then the light of Jesus’ teaching would have _____ under a bowl or bed.

Jesus says there is a relationship between _____ and capacity.

To the extent of the capacity we offer, He will _____ it up.

There is never a time in our Christian life when it is all right to stop _____, because when you quit, then you go into reverse. You _____ what you had.

We don’t all at once become _____ followers of Jesus.

While the work of Jesus’ followers is to _____ the seed, we need to be reminded that there is another power at work---that of the _____ ---causing things to happen that cannot be seen with the natural eye.

The first parable---the story of the 4 different soils---tells us that Jesus' kingdom meets with different _____.

The second parable---the growing seed---informs us that Jesus' kingdom is _____.

This third parable---the mustard seed that develops---shows us the extensive _____ of Jesus' kingdom. It grows from tiny to _____.

Jesus knows the transforming power of his _____ in those who follow him, and he knows the _____ of the seed of the Gospel to produce far beyond our expectations.
