Message #9---“Moving From the Sidelines to the Playing Field” Mark 6:6-56

Jesus’ instructions for the disciples’ journeys:

- 1) He limited their _____
- 2) He limited their _____
- 3) He limited their _____

The disciples don’t have to _____ a message. They are simply to _____ the message they have heard Jesus speak.

Herod Antipas had this strange fascination with John the Baptist. He rather admired this prophet who had the _____ to speak his mind, even if he didn’t like his message.

There is a natural rhythm of the Christian life. It involves taking time to spend with _____ in the secret place so that we are empowered to serve _____ in the marketplace.

Jesus was not put off by the _____ of people with need, and that is how he wants us to respond, too.

In the hands of Jesus, _____ is always _____.

Matthew 14:27-33 (NIV) “Jesus immediately said to them: “Take courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.” “Lord, if it’s you,” Peter replied, “tell me to come to you on the water.” “Come,” he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat and walked on the water to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, “Lord, save me!” Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “You of little faith,” he said, “why did you doubt?” And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

You can’t _____ on water if you’re not willing to get out of the _____!
