

SEIZING YOUR DIVINE MOMENT

Message #2---“Uncertainty Is Certain”

The security that we often seek is not _____ to living life to the fullest.

1 Samuel 7:3 (NIV) “If you are returning to the Lord with all your hearts, then rid yourselves of the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths and commit yourselves to the Lord and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.”

Jonathan knew for certain that nothing could stop the Lord from saving, and God could use a lot of people or only a few people. The odds were _____ to God.

If the cross teaches us anything, it teaches us that sometimes God comes through after we’ve been _____!

We must take responsibility for what we do have control over, and that is how we _____ to live.

If you wait for guarantees, the only thing that will be guaranteed is that you will _____ endless divine opportunities---that’s for certain.

Hebrews 11:1,2 (NIV) “Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. This is what the ancients were commended for.”

First-dimension faith is involved when we step out into any area of trust in God outside our _____, but the challenge set before us is clearly in the realm of _____.

The fabric of this dimension of faith has everything to do with _____. It is about _____ in God’s character and God’s _____ your character. That’s why you cannot speak about faith without talking about _____.

Matthew 17:20 (NIV) “If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there’ and it will move.”

Hebrews 11:8 (NIV) “By faith Abraham, when called (by God) to go to a place he would after receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.”

Faithfulness is taking responsibility for the _____ we know to do.

Second-dimension faith takes us outside the _____.

If we go only where we are _____, and do only what we are certain will _____, we remove our need for God.

Many times first-dimension faith creates the _____ for second-dimension faith. But we must remember that if we are thrown into the lions’ den and we get eaten, God is still _____. This is what makes second-dimension faith so exciting. You know that God will be honored because you have done what is _____.

Jonathan had no idea whether God would act on his behalf in that particular engagement. He just knew _____ God was. There is only One who is _____; everything else exists in the realm of uncertainty. But He is the only certainty you need to seize the divine moments that come your way.
