

SEIZING YOUR DIVINE MOMENT

Message #3---“Leveraging Your Influence”

As a parent, setting boundaries through your _____ may be important, but shaping values through your _____ is much more important.

1 SAMUEL 13:22-14:8

Jonathan did not use his military position to _____ his armor bearer to follow him. He simply _____ him.

As a servant, the armor bearer was required to obey his master. But the armor bearer expressed more than _____; he expressed his _____ to Jonathan.

The armor bearer trusted who Jonathan _____.

Authority can shape what a person _____, but influence shapes who a person _____.

A significant part of seizing a divine moment is recognizing that God’s intention is to use us as vessels for _____.

God’s greatest moments for us are never for us _____. They are always about our _____ touching the _____ of others.

1 SAMUEL 14:12-23

We never can predict the _____ of our influence.

God has not called Christian Life Fellowship to a place of _____ in this community, but He has called us to be a people of _____.
