

SEIZING YOUR DIVINE MOMENT

Message #4---“Dare To Take A Risk”

1 Samuel 13:22-14:23

Jonathan senses that there is something special in this moment, and so he takes the _____.

He took that initiative without knowing whether he would be _____ in this endeavor.

God promises that we can be certain about who He _____, we can be certain about our _____ with Him, and we know that the _____ of the story is certain.

But how the journey plays out in the middle is full of _____.

Jonathan could have used his _____ to demand that his armor bearer follow him, but he realized that _____ is always more powerful than authority.

In addition to the uncertainty of this engagement, Jonathan now lays out a _____ that is questionable.

Jonathan was stepping into a moment where _____ would have to come through if this engagement was going to achieve its ultimate end.

Many of us live our lives making sure we are not _____. We choose the cloak of _____.

When Jonathan and his armor bearer showed themselves to the Philistines, they were at the point of no _____.

It is better to try, and risk _____, than not to try at all.

It is in these moments of _____ that we are best positioned to see God work in undeniable ways.

There may not be anything more _____ than embracing a God-given moment, knowing you are in over your head, and then watching God come through.

So often _____ are emboldened and encouraged to get involved when they see someone leading the way in a risk-taking adventure.

When we step out, both as individuals and as a church, and take a risk for the purpose of God's Kingdom, then God will be delighted to step in and _____ our efforts, and do what only He can do.
